Does This Turn You On?

Call your partner a few minutes before he gets off of work and tell him that you will be home later because you are busy (or tell him you will be at your neighbor's house for awhile). Also let him know that you have a surprise for him on your bed, so he will go check it out when he gets home. Start out by gathering 3 small boxes (preferably empty jewelry boxes), some paper, a pen, and tape. Write a note on a piece of paper that tells him to open the boxes in numerical order. Then number the boxes 1 thru 3. You can tape the numbers to the top of the boxes. Remember to close the boxes when you are done filling them. Put all of the boxes on the bed.

First, place some cinnamon and vanilla (these smells are supposed to turn on guys) in box number 1. To do this, you can wrap up some cinnamon spice in a tissue. Then, pour a small amount of vanilla onto another tissue (you can also use anything else that is vanilla scented, like lotion). Next, take a piece of paper and write on it "Unwrap the tissue and smell these items. Do they turn you on?" Take this piece of paper and tape it to the inside of the box on the lid. Then close the box.

Now work on box number 2. Be creative with this box. If you have a small picture of yourself, put it in the box. Another item you could place in the box is a tissue with the scent of your perfume. For this box, remember to relate what is in the box with what you write on the paper. The last thing that you should write on the paper is "Close your eyes and think of me. Are you getting turned on?" Then tape this piece of paper to the inside lid of the box, and close the box.

Finally, box number 3; leave this box empty. The only thing that you need to put inside the box is a little note with directions for him. The note should say, "Are you turned on by now? Turn around for one last question."

When he turns around, you should be standing in the room with him. Find a place to hide (like in another room) or anywhere so you can watch him when he is opening up the boxes. You need to be able to see him when he begins to turn around. When he turns around, ask him a question. There are a few options for what you ask him. Here are a few examples:

- "Are you turned on now?"
- "If the boxes did not turn you on, will this turn you on?" (For this question, you need to have a robe on, be naked underneath the robe, and open up the robe for him to see you). Or you can peak around the corner of the door, so he can only see your face until you are done asking him the question. Then walk over to him.
- "Do you want me to turn you on some more?"

You should be wearing lingerie, or be naked under a robe. Another option is just to be standing there naked, so you can walk over to the bed and lay down in a sexy position.

There is another way to play this game if he is at home. Send him to the store to get something or have him go outside to do something. The important thing is to make sure that you have enough time to get ready. Then, instead of calling him, you can leave a note by the door, or somewhere where he will see it. On the note, write "I have a surprise waiting on the bed for you."
